St. Louis Republican.] Jackson, Miss., April 18.—Messrs. Sells & Co., St. Louis: Your favor of the 7th received ; also two papers with extracts marked, all of which I have carefully noted. The Kansas fever has not reached this section, immediatealthough it is impossible to ascertain how far it has reached. All the negroes knowsomething about it, but will give no information from can you get them to express any decided views upon the subject. All is wrapt in mystery as o their movements. The western part of this ounty has suffered considerably by their abou ioning their contracts and moving off with little or no notice, with great loss to the plan ters, and an uneasy feeling exists all along th iver that their hands, now seemingly conter ted and working well, may at any time aba don their crops without any warning or info mation of their intentions, till they are on the way to Kansas. The planters along the rive and in sections where the negro can get without much land travel are becoming grea alarmed at the situation, and a movem s being made to call a convention of planter it which Senat Bruce, ex-Congressman Lynel and other representative colored men will pecially notified, as well as the colored men gen fally, to see if some plan can not be hit upon top this movement at this season of the year and consult as regards supplying the South with labor from some other quarter. Of course, the Chinaman is the expectant comin It is useless to deny the cit-told tale of bulldozing, murder and inhuman treatment of the negro that is so widely spread abroad in ieorge W.
